PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Management takes the handling and retention of your confidential information very seriously. However, the bookshop cannot provide a high-quality service without this information. As part of our ongoing commitment to protect your personal information as well as ensuring that you can trust the Book Corner's services, we want to ensure you that your privacy and the protection of your personal data is one of our priorities. We undertake, as prescribed in the Protection of Personal Information Act, to comply with all reasonable steps to look after your interests in respect of your privacy, safety, and integrity.

Unfortunately, our policies are not available in English yet, but will be soon.
